TO YOU,

YOUR FAMILY

AND FRIENDS...

IF YOU LISTEN HARD ENOUGH,
YOU CAN ALMOST HEAR THEIR RHYTHMIC STRIDE CONNECTING WITH THE LANDSCAPE...

...AS THE RIDERS
MAKE THEIR WAY
THROUGH MOUNTAINS
AND HIGH DESERT
TO THE VALLEY.

SWORN TO PROTECT THEIR PRECIOUS CARGO,
THEY RIDE HARD AND FAST TOWARD SCOTTSDALE.

SOON THEY WILL RIDE INTO THE
HISTORY BOOKS.

BE THERE
WHEN THEY DO.

A legendary American tradition established in 1860 was revived in 1958 by Arizona's Hashknife Pony Express—who have continued to deliver the U.S. mail on galloping horseback with their annual 200-mile relay from Holbrook to Scottsdale. The Hashknife Pony Express riders, who are sworn in as official mail messengers of the U.S. Postal Service, are members of the volunteer Navajo County Sheriff's Posse of Northern Arizona.
